This Week Goals.....

This week we will begin learning about the first French, Dutch and English Colonies, and we will also cover the New England Colonies.

Students have access to Interactive Textbooks for additional support on the lessons as well as practice quizzes and lesson videos.

Attendance (post a meme or your first and last name in chats by 9:00 a.m. on the days that we do not meet virtually) in order to receive credit for attendance.

Purple & Gold Virtual Students

Topics:

- The First French, Dutch, and English Colonies
- New England Colonies

Description

After completing the lessons, students will be able to explain why Europeans explored North America's coast, identify the reasons for English colonization, explain how Virginia began a tradition of representative government, and describe how different groups in Jamestown interacted with the environment. Students will also identify the significance of the Mayflowers Compact.
